Evangelism Essentials:

"The church in the West will continue to diminish and may perhaps die unless it returns to the New Testament imperative to go and be a witness to Jesus Christ. All are not called to preach. All are not called to evangelize; that is a gift for some Christians. But all are called to give testimony to the Lord they love and serve."

- Michael Green

Pulpit Ponderings

(A reflection from the previous week's sermon):

Hope is basic to life. Hope is more than wishful thinking. The old prophets were told of the coming Messiah who will save His people. God never left His people without hope. The only hope of Christmas is Jesus.
