Evangelism Essentials:

“Evangelism is like panning for gold; you push against lots of dirt to find the precious nugget.”

Pulpit Ponderings

(A reflection from the previous week's sermon):

God intends for believers to be in community with each other. A healthy church body reflects the unity and fellowship God has with the trinity. Christians are better off as a team, laboring together in ministry and building each other up in the faith. When hot coals are spread, the flame dies, so let's stick together.
